

Evan's Annual Report

Hi Mike, sorry for taking so long to get back. Yes I was at  Lake for about a week and a half. As usual it was very busy, at one point somebody counted about 50 boats on the lake. The fishing was actually quite slow the first few days I was there but seemed to pick up during the last week. The fish? huge as usual, no one even raises an eye at an 8 pounder, 10 pounds is a little more interesting, all on chironomids 23 feet down. I'll attach a picture of myself and one of somebody else who caught a hog.
